

TURNER'S PAINT STORE

SBDC AT MONTANA COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION
-MISSOULA, MT-

Turner's Paint Store is a locally-owned family business in Missoula, Montana. The store is a Benjamin Moore paint dealer and provides high-end paint and painting supplies to the Missoula community. Bryant Santos was a long-term employee of Turner's Paint Store and wanted to purchase the business from the current owner, Josh Turner. Bryant turned to the Small Business Development Center at Montana Community Development Corporation to learn more about the process of buying an existing business and to discuss his financing options. Amita Patel-Greer, SBDC Director in Missoula, guided Bryant through the steps of purchasing the business. Amita worked with Bryant to develop a solid business plan, create financial projections, and evaluate financing options. With the assistance provided by Amita and the SBDC, Bryant was able to secure a loan through Montana Community Development Corporation and purchased the business from Josh Turner. Turner's Paint Store has since hired an additional full-time employee, and plans to continue offering expertise, superior products and outstanding service.
